

Opt-in permission to be contacted for future Takeda campaigns

Thank you for your interest in our Hunter syndrome/MPS II initiatives!

Takeda is working hard to increase awareness of MPS II and is looking for MPS II families, caregivers and patients who would be willing to help in our efforts by being featured in future campaigns. Participation is completely voluntary and initiatives may include photo-shoots and interviews for future campaigns.

Do you give permission to be contacted by a Takeda representative or agency partner about possible involvement in future campaigns and initiatives (e.g. photo-shoots or interviews)? Your information will be used only for the purpose described. You can withdraw your consent at anytime by contacting privacyoffice@takeda.com.
